Hi council folks

Dave Wakins here, [REDACTED]

We got a lot of interesting bumpf delivered on Monday - consultation on the local plan.

As we did for the recent parking consultation, Ive read through much of the materials and tried a test run on commenting online so that I can help customers who might need it.

To be honest Im not sure after all this what you are trying to do, or how residents are to participate.

If I don't have the knowledge to determine whether something is "legally compliant" or "sound", whatever this means - neither will the average pensioner. I didnt know how to answer these questions!

I personally did have a few thoughts on cycle provision, and ev charge points. Plus very interested in what might happen down at Moorfoot.

Right now I do feel that you are not compliant with the duty to cooperate, simply because I can't make sense of it all. Sorry if I'm missing the obvious!

Kind regards Dave
