Parish Registers in the Archdeaconry of Sheffield and Rotherham

Sheffield Archives is the Diocesan Record Office (DRO) for the Archdeaconry of Sheffield and Rotherham in the Diocese of Sheffield. Doncaster Archives is the DRO for the Archdeaconry of Doncaster.

Introduction

In this guide the dates given for registers are covering dates. Gaps are not indicated.

Baptisms performed in a daughter church are at first often entered in the register of the mother church, and a separate register for the new church may not be begun until some time after it has opened. (A daughter church is one opened in a large or populous parish to assist the existing, or mother church, and is usually licensed only for baptisms initially, though often eventually becomes the church of a new and independent parish).

None of the daughter churches (or chapels-of-ease) of Sheffield parish church was licensed for marriages before 1848, except Holy Trinity, Darnall where marriages took place from 1845.

Where no burial registers are noted, this is because the church concerned does not have a graveyard. The graveyards of churches in central Sheffield were closed in, or after, 1855.

In some cases records other than registers may be available, so please contact us if you are interested in records other than registers for a particular church.

You are strongly advised to contact us to book a microfiche reader in advance if you wish to see registers which are on microfiche.

Please note m indicates that some registers are on microfiche (see the introduction)

Adding to our collections

Sheffield Libraries and Archives seeks to preserve information about events in our city's history. If you have photographs or personal papers that may be worth preserving, please consider safeguarding them for current and future generations by placing them in the care of Sheffield Libraries and Archives. It is only through the generosity of individuals and organisations that we are able to have a complete record of important events in the history of Sheffield and the nation. We are interested in photographs, flyers and posters, minutes of meetings etc. For advice on record keeping and the facilities we offer please email us (archives@sheffield.gov.uk or telephone 0114 203 9395).
